Lucie won 4 Prizes at the International Voice Competition of Marmande in August 2022 (Grand Prize, Audience Prize, Prize of Meiningen State Opera, and Prize of Lyrichoregra 20) just after post graduating summa cum laude from the Paris National Conservatory of Music (CNSMDP). She is still studying with Frédéric Gindraux.

She also won the Young Talent Prize at the International Voice competition in Canari (Corsica) and she is a laureate of both Meyer and Kriegelstein Foundations. She has attended the masterclasses of Barbara Hanigan, Anne Le Bozec, Margreet Hönig...

Lucie has always explored the full range of her long, rich and warm voice. The first roles she sang on stage were mezzo soprano's ones such as Mrs Grose / The Turn of the screw by Britten, 1st Prioress / Le Dialogue des Carmélites by Poulenc.

She then turned to soprano repertoire singing the title role of Alceste by Gluck and Marguerite / La Damnation de Faust by Berlioz. Recent performances include Ottavia / Monteverdi's Il Nerone with the Academy of the Paris National Opera, Offenbach's La Perichole at Paris Opéra Comique, and her debut recital at the Chorégies d'Orange and at the International Music Festival of Cadaqués (Spain) with pianist David Fray.

Concerts include Duruflé's Requiem (Cathédrale des Invalides in Paris), Mozart's Requiem with the Contraste Ensemble, Dvorak's Stabat Mater with the Atelier des Songes, Ravel's Chansons madécasses at the Paris Conservatory, Rossini's La Petite Messe solennelle at the Potager du Roy Festival at the Versailles Castle.

Upcoming projects include Freia / Rheingold and Helmwige / Walküre at Theater Basel, Iphigénie en Tauride and Aza/Manru at Nancy Opera, La Périchole at Dijon Opera and a residency at Fondation des Treilles.
